TCC elects new President

Calwell businessman and local identity, Nick Tsoulas, has taken over the reins of the Tuggeranong Community Council (TCC).

Mr Tsoulas was elected unopposed last night as TCC President at the Council's Annual General Meeting.

He replaces Darryl Johnston who retired from the position after a three-year term.

Mr Tsoulas, said he was proud to take on the job and looked forward to working with a new Council Executive.

He said the Council will continue to play an active role in the community and work with other groups and organisations in the best interests of all Valley residents.

"My focus will be on better public transport links, quality planning and development, improved services and facilities and a better environment.

"I thank Darryl Johnston for his work over the last three years during which time he built the Council into a powerful voice for Valley residents, Mr Tsoulas said.
