TCC calls for community comment on Random Roadside Drug Testing

The Tuggeranong Community Council (TCC) has entered the debate over the introduction of Random Roadside Drug Testing in the ACT with the launch of an on-line survey.

TCC President Darryl Johnston said the survey seeks to determine community opinion on drug driving and the introduction of Random Roadside Drug Testing in the ACT.

Members of the public can participate in the survey by visiting the TCC website at www.tuggcc.com
