

SOUTHFEST in the LANEWAYS

On the weekend of the 10th to the 12th of November, the Tuggeranong Laneways (between South.Point and the lake) were the centre of four major SouthFest events attended by thousands. They were:

Day Time Events

Our Tuggeranong Community Day, 10am-3pm, Saturday 11 November

The Community converged on the Laneways with a day of performances, markets, community information and connection. The Tuggeranong Arts Centre, Community Centre, Library and 55 Plus Club also offered a range of activities.

Live Well: Tuggeranong Wellbeing and Sustainable Living Expo, Sunday 12 November

Supported by Icon Water and SEE Change, the event offered markets, information stalls, workshops, come and try activities. People connected with local sustainable businesses and health providers.

Healthy Waterways

Icon Water

Repair Café in the Library

Night Time Events

Battle of the Bands - 10th November

12 young bands and various young performers performed at this youth focussed, family friendly event

12 young bands and various young performers performed at this youth focused, family friendly event

Laneways Alive - Saturday night 11th November

Suited a different audience with parents and young children listening and dancing to the music of Martin Lambert with Phil Essau, the Divine Devilles and Code Red.

Setting up

Enjoying the music

Children dancing with parents

